SCHLEY WILL TALK AGAIN

The Admiral May Add to the Testimony Regarding the Sampson Controversy.

COURT ADJOURS UNTIL MONDAY

Only Two More Witnesses to Be Called—Argument by Counsel Will Be Begun After They Have Finished—Court Will Probably Require Several Days to Consider Testimony.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press.

Washington, Nov. 1.—Admiral Schley was in the court room half an hour before proceedings in the court of inquiry were begun today. He announced that he would not be able to undertake the correction of his testimony before next Monday. It is probable that he will have something more to say concerning his interview May 18, with Admiral Sampson, relative to which Captain Chadwick spoke yesterday.

When the court opened the judge adjourned, Captain Lundy, announced that counsel had agreed on the order of the speeches in closing the case, adjourned to the adjournment of Mr. Baynes to open for the department. He will be followed by Captain Parker and Mr. Baynes for Admiral Schley, and Judge Advocate Lundy will close for the department. That arrangement, Admiral Dewey announced, was satisfactory to the court.

Captain Lundy then brought up the question of the character of the argument to be made. Admiral Dewey said: "There won't be any trouble about that. When we come to that bridge we will cross it."

Sylvester Scovell was then called. He said he did not hear Captain Schleser tell the war correspondents, of which he was one, on board the Santees N. Smith, on May 28, that General's squadron was not in San Diego. Schleser might have done so, Scovell admitted.

Captain Chadwick, when recalled, said, in response to a question from Mr. Baynes, that there had been mutual agreement by the navy department and the commanding general concerning the bombardment of Spanish shore batteries, in order to permit the bombardment of San Juan, Porto Rico. He added that in his opinion there had been a general abrogation of the order.

Captain Chadwick was then excused and Lieutenant John Head, who commanded the Hawk during the Spanish war, recalled. Head was questioned on the point made by Admiral Schley in his testimony that the commanding officer of the Hawk had lied with the navy department in memorandum in which he said, speaking of Head's return from his mission to commando, "Head says a good many officers do not believe the Spaniards are their for themselves at all; but they can only suppose."

"I did make such a report, one warning stronger language than that," Mr. Hanna. "How did you get the notes in reference to boarding the Adm."

"From Lieutenant Simpson of the Brooklyn, who boarded her."

Captain Lundy then said that he had one more witness to call, but he was too ill to appear before Monday. It was also said that Admiral Schley would again take the stand for the purpose of correcting his testimony.

Mr. Baynes, of counsel for Schley, said he had no more witness to call except possibly the admiral himself.

The court then adjourned until Monday at 11 a.m.
